

INFORMATION FOR MEMBERS AND ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

MEMBERS

Members of the European Fundraising Association (EFA) are associations/organisations in one of the member countries of the Council of Europe, who have a core objective of promoting best practice in fundraising and philanthropy, and developing the fundraising profession and industry.

Annual General Assembly

Members may participate in General Assemblies, have the right to take part in debate and to vote on resolutions in the General Assembly.

Fees

All members pay an annual EFA membership fee based on the income of the association/organisation, as follows:

- Minimum annual membership fee of EUR 200 and maximum annual fee of EUR 6.500
- EFA membership fee based on 1.5% of the association's/organisation's membership fee income
- If the member does not have membership fee income, the EFA membership fee is based on 0.35% of the association's/organisation's total income from activities

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

Associate members are organisations or individuals who have close links to EFA, but who do not qualify for membership of EFA (e.g. fundraising associations outside of the Council of Europe).

Fees

The annual fee for EFA associate members is EUR 2.000.
